VOYAGER '66

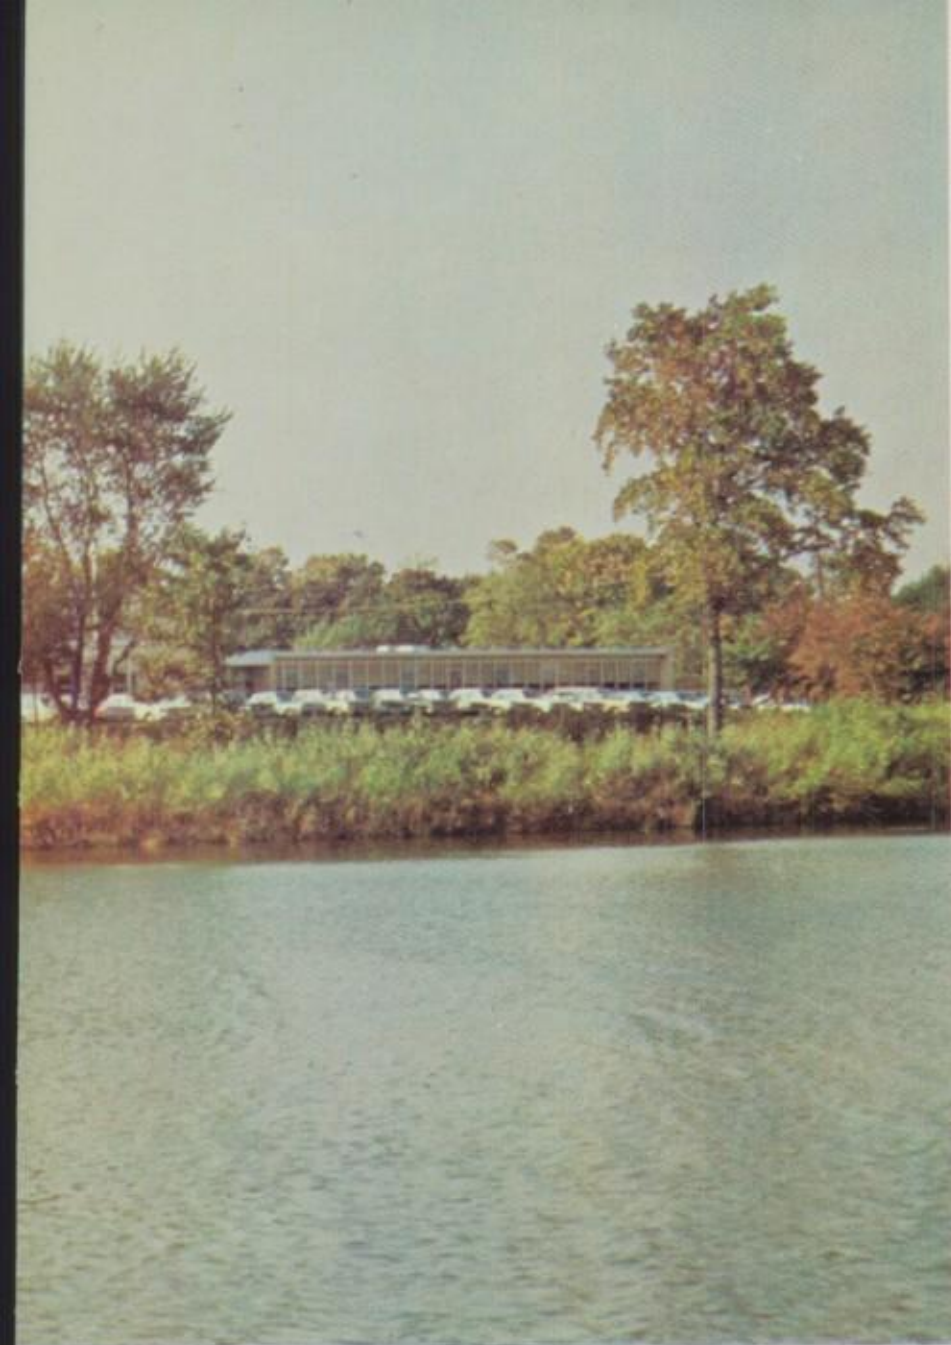

THE SCHOOL . . . THE COMMUNITY

During the past four years, Shore Regional High School has progressed from a barren structure of brick and mortar into a distinguished institution of public education. The halls and classrooms, alive with the spirit of youth, have become thriving centers of imparted knowledge. Students reaping the benefits of a sound education will take their places in the community as responsible, respected citizens.

In light of this, we, the Class of 1966, call upon the art of photography and the written word to capture the passing moments of our high school careers. We hope that the following pages will live on as a tangible memorial to the spirit and generosity of the four communities which have today made Shore Regional a living reality.

“There is no ‘I’ in TEAM . . .”

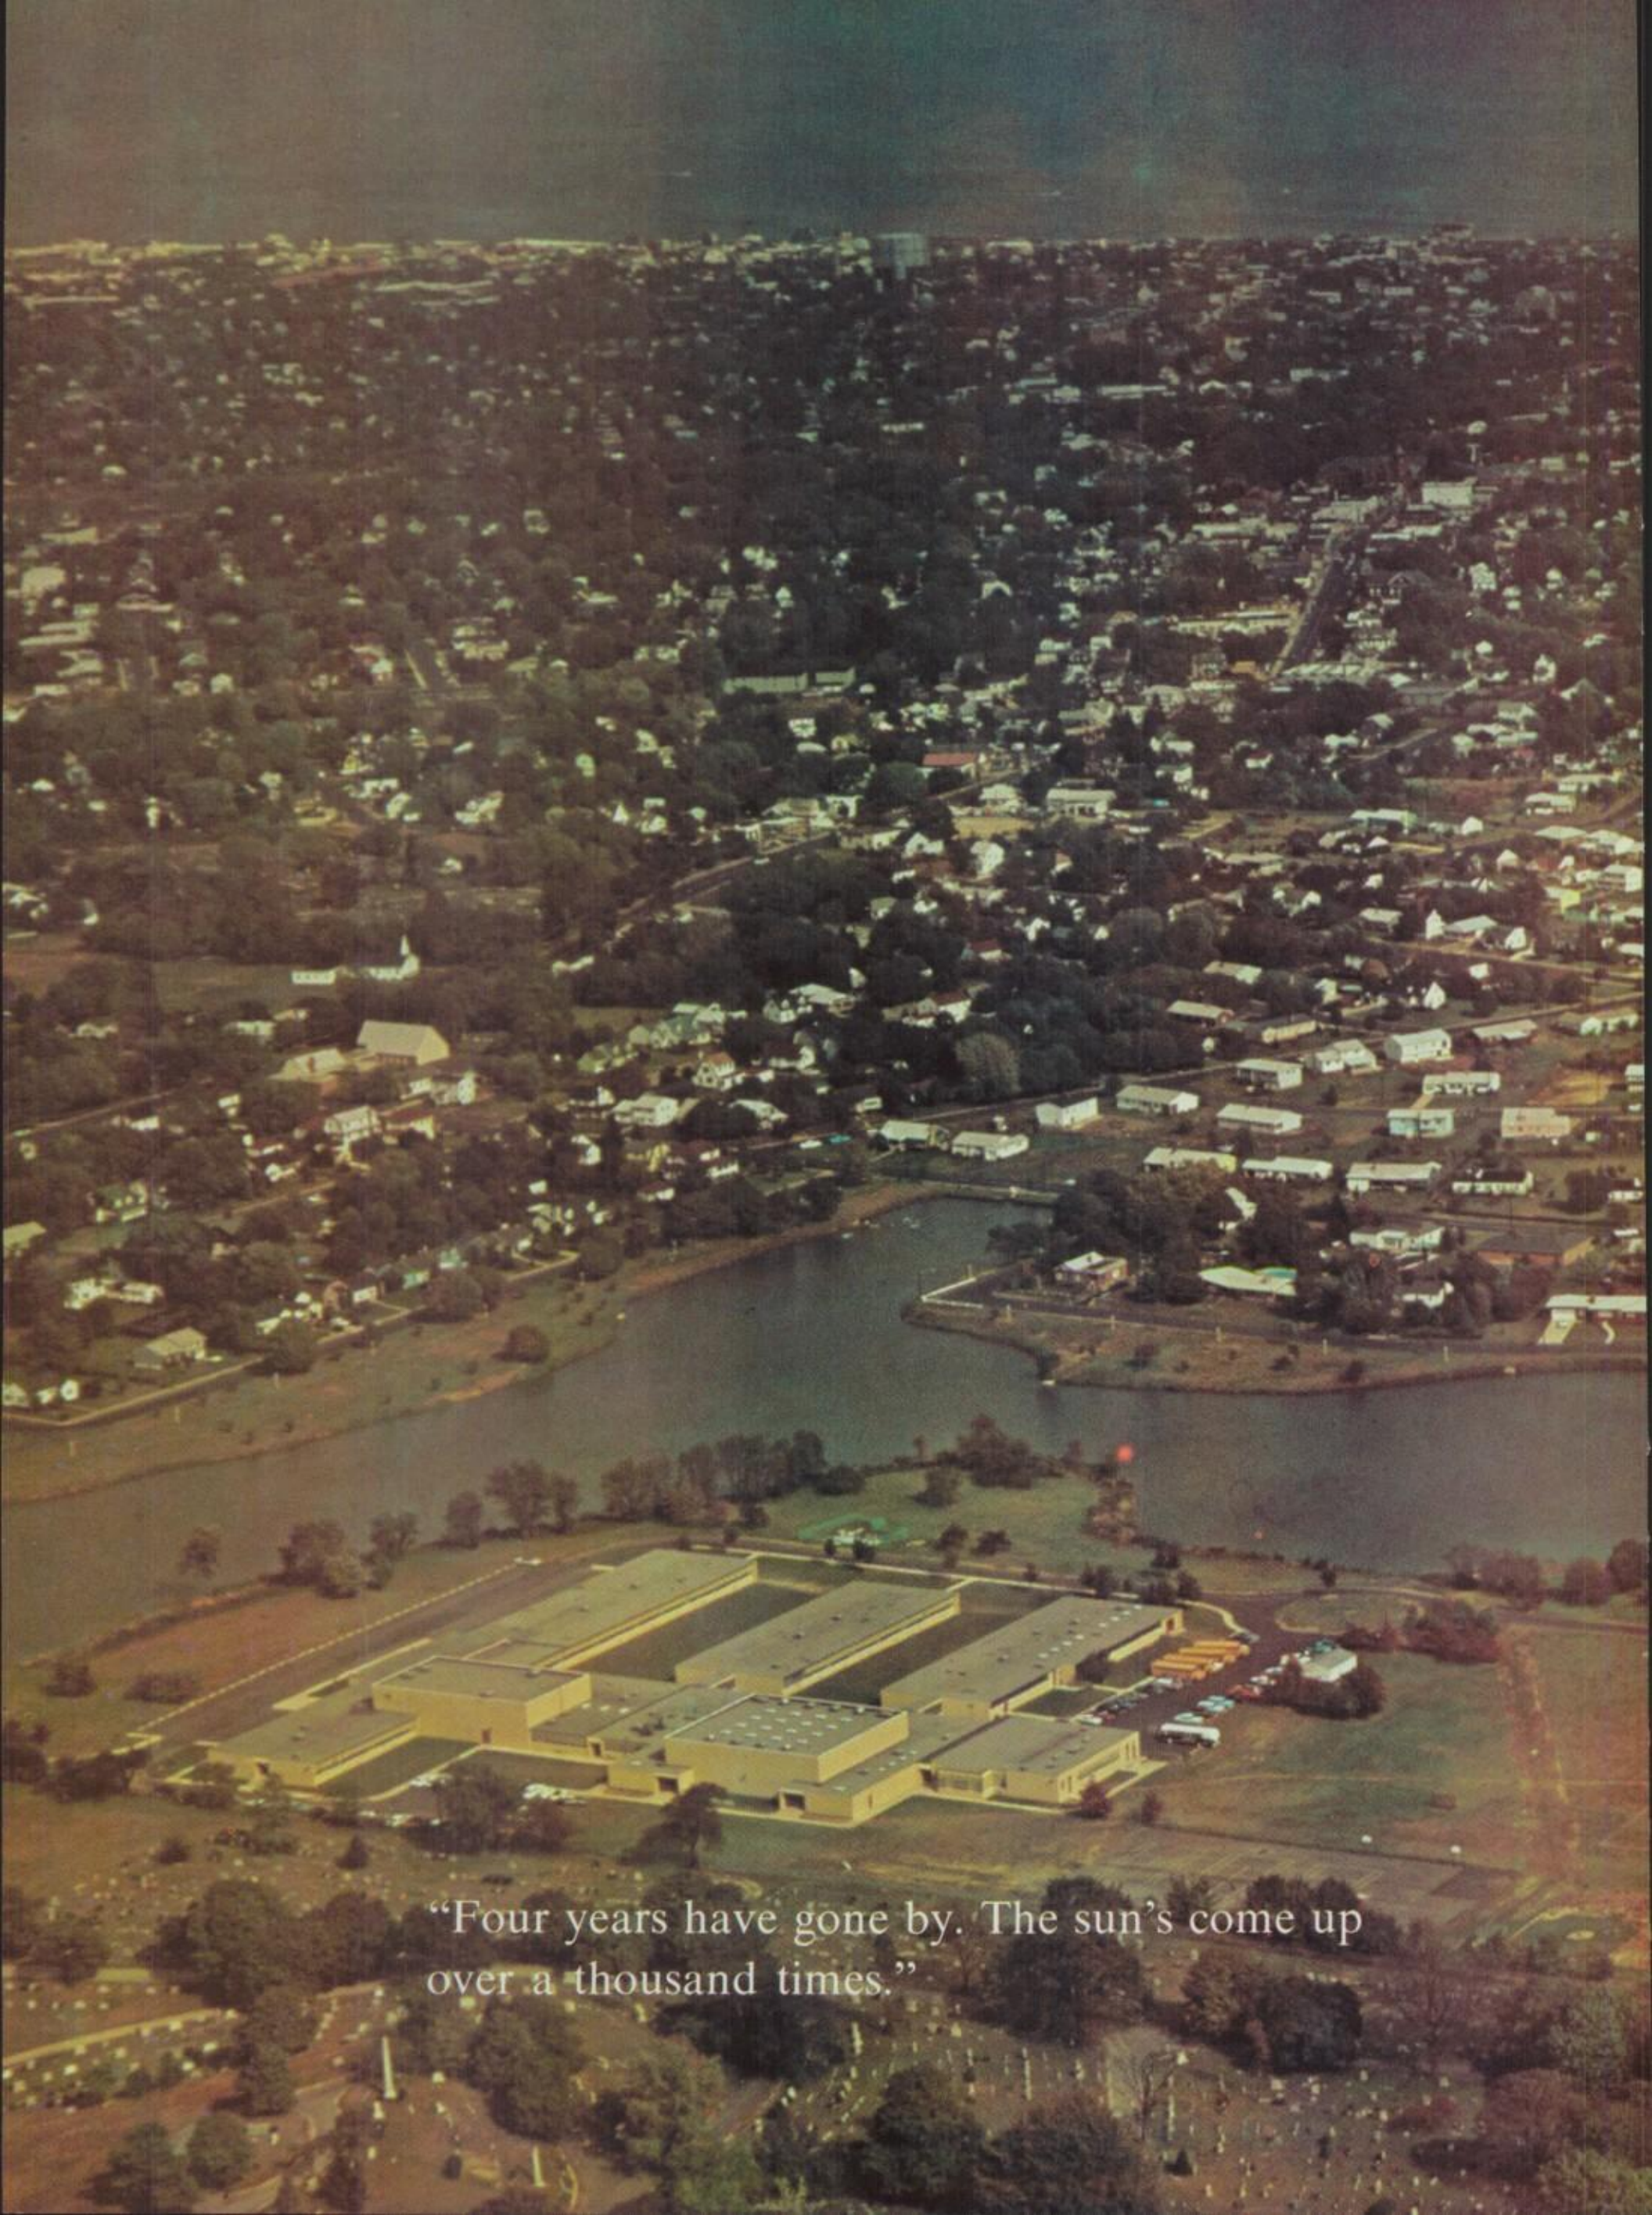

During the past four years at Shore Regional, we have all come to know Mr. John “Jake” Jeffrey as a teacher, as a coach, and as a friend. He has gained our respect and admiration through our contacts with him in the classroom, on the athletic field, and in public.

In the classroom and on the field, his senses of fair play and good sportsmanship are transmitted to all working with him. He believes that a team is as strong as its weakest member, thus giving all a fair chance and equal helping hand. Coach Jeffrey believes that it is team effort and not individualism that makes a winning team.

During his four years in association with Shore Regional, Mr. Jeffrey has become the keystone of our school spirit. He is the spark that makes Shore Regional come alive. As a coach, he has been at the helm of both winning and losing teams. However, both groups have had one thing in common — undying team spirit.

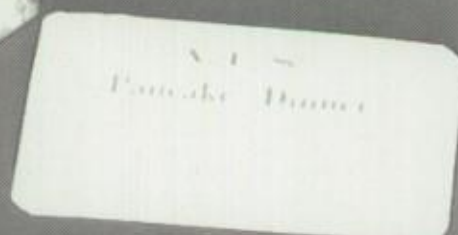

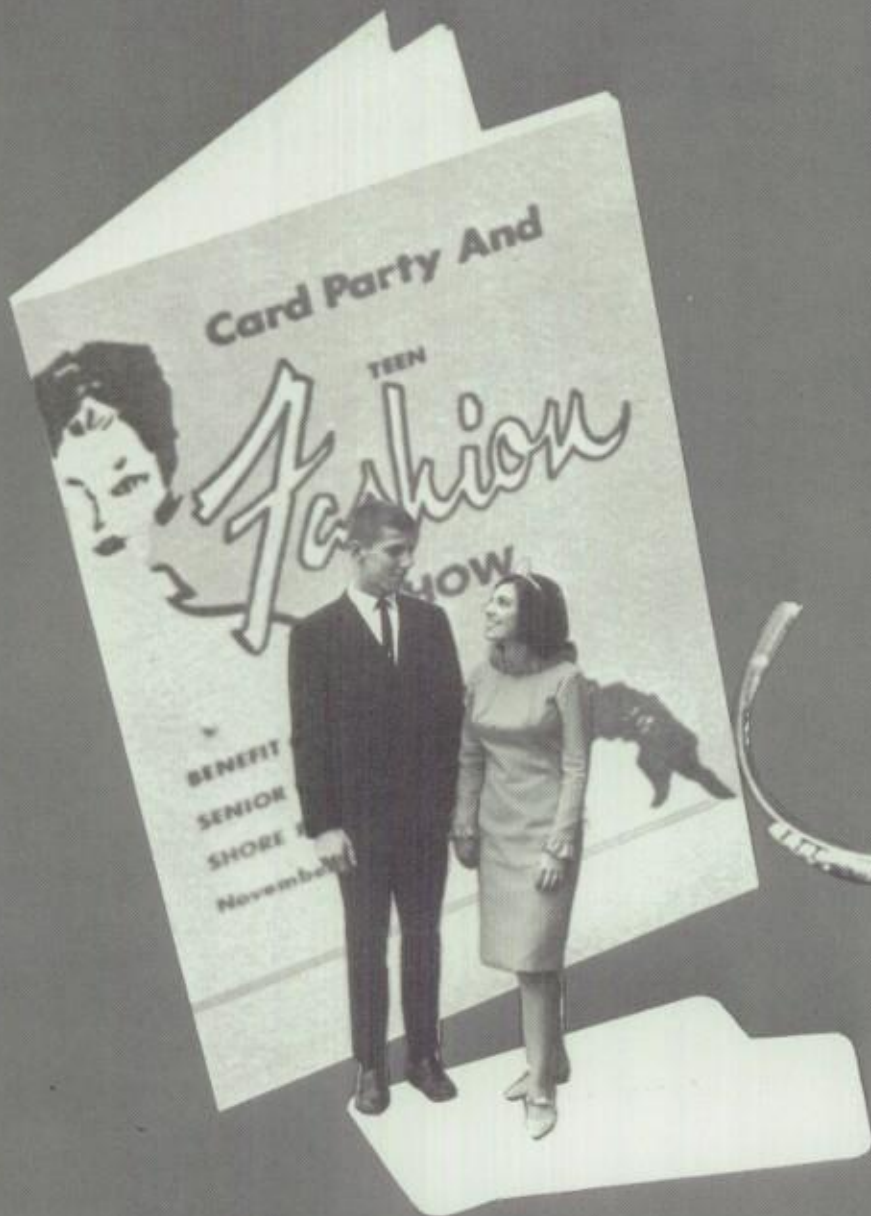

The Senior Class dedicates the VOYAGER '66 to a man whose influence is felt, whether directly or indirectly, by every student in Shore Regional today.

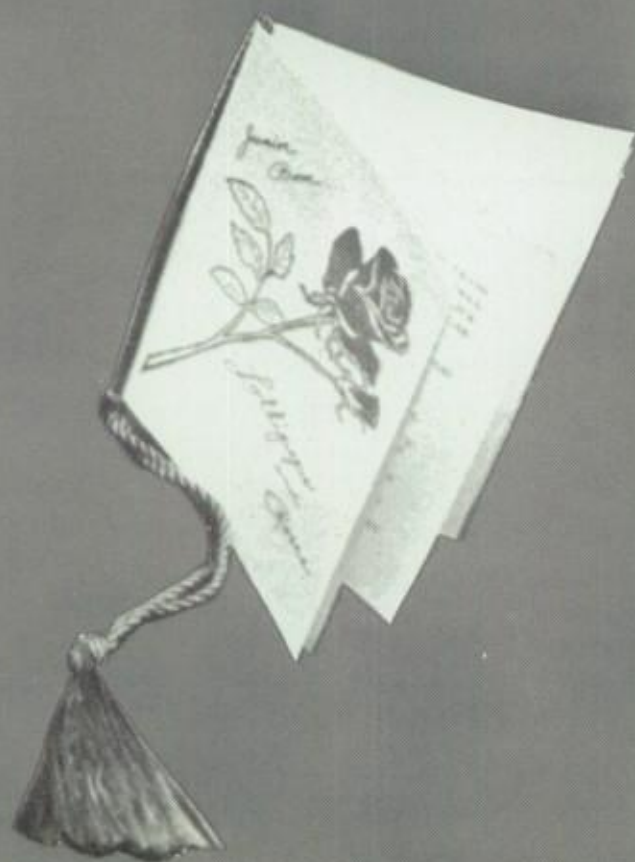

"Four years have gone by. The sun's come up over a thousand times."

POWDER PUFF FOOTBALL . . .

The twenty-four girls who made up the 1966 Powder Puff team disregarded the inclement weather to bring Shore a decisive 18-6 victory over Monmouth Regional. Arranged by the Senior class presidents of both schools, the Shore-Monmouth Powder Puff game was held on November 20, 1965, on the Eatontown school's field. Public support and shrewd playing made the game a profitable as well as victorious class activity.

The Parents Advisory Council Presents . . .

The Traditional Senior Card Party and Fashion Show made it possible for the Parents Advisory Council to raise substantial funds for the benefit of the Senior Class. Held in the cafeteria on the evening of November 10, 1965, it attracted an overflowing crowd of teachers, parents, and friends. A "Teen Fashion Show," presented in cooperation with Daniels Specialty Shop and Lou's Mens' and Boys' Wear, both of Long Branch, highlighted the evening's entertainment. General Chairman, Mrs. Philip Gattis, introduced Mrs. Bernard Sugar, who commented on the fashions modeled by selected members of the class.

Bobby Olivadotti and Ines da Fonseca e Silva wait for the fashion show to begin.

Heading the extensive list of door prizes and special awards was a week-end for two at Mount Airy Lodge, Mt. Pocono, Pennsylvania. Numerous members of the Class of '66 aided in the distribution of these prizes. Students also served as waitresses, coatchecks, musicians, and in many other capacities.

“HOMECOMING A GOGO”

At 8 o'clock on November 26, 1965, the cafeteria filled with music and expectation as "Homecoming a GoGo," Shore's second annual homecoming dance began. The music of the "Crescendos" echoed through the room as the graduates of '64 and '65 were reminded of the "good old times" at Shore.

Excitement ensued as Thelma Ficalora and Bill Cittadino won the dance contest with their interpretation of "Mashed Potato Time." The major event of the evening, crowning of the Homecoming Queen, soon followed. Candidates Pat Barbour, Kathy Dombrowski, Linda Mayro, Geri Rendish, Pat Wardell, and Nancy Zurat anxiously waited as Betty Farro, last year's queen, opened the envelope disclosing the winner. An admiring silence fell over the crowd as Geri Rendish was crowned Queen, with Pete Demaree as her king.

The evening quickly drew to a close, and old friends were forced to say Good-Bye again for another year.

STUDENT DAY . . .

Fifty-four members of the Senior Class temporarily moved "to the other side of the desk" to assume teachers' positions as Student Day was again observed at Shore. The Senior teachers followed their faculty members' daily schedules which included classroom instruction, homeroom and study hall supervision, in addition to cafeteria duty.

In her role as principal, Senior Class President Tobe Levin attended to many administrative duties as well as disciplinary matters. Positions on the office and library staffs were also assumed by interested students of the Senior Class.

"An Evening of Christmas Music"

This year the Shore Regional Music Department was proud to present its first Christmas Concert. "An Evening of Christmas Music" included traditional songs by the chorus and band. Soloists were Ralph Manna and Ruth Duke with Judy Bradley as accompanist. The evening was highlighted by the performance of Tobe Levin, Helene Grasso, and Mary Ann Smorra, the Gold-Dusters, singing Chanuka songs.

A.F.S.

As its main project, the American Field Service chapter sponsored a Pancake Dinner to raise money to send our own exchange student overseas. Through the cooperation and efforts of students comprising various committees, the dinner netted $150 profit. As a result, Shore was able to raise sufficient funds to send Junior Ralph Manna to attend school in New Zealand for a year.

PANCAKE SUPPER

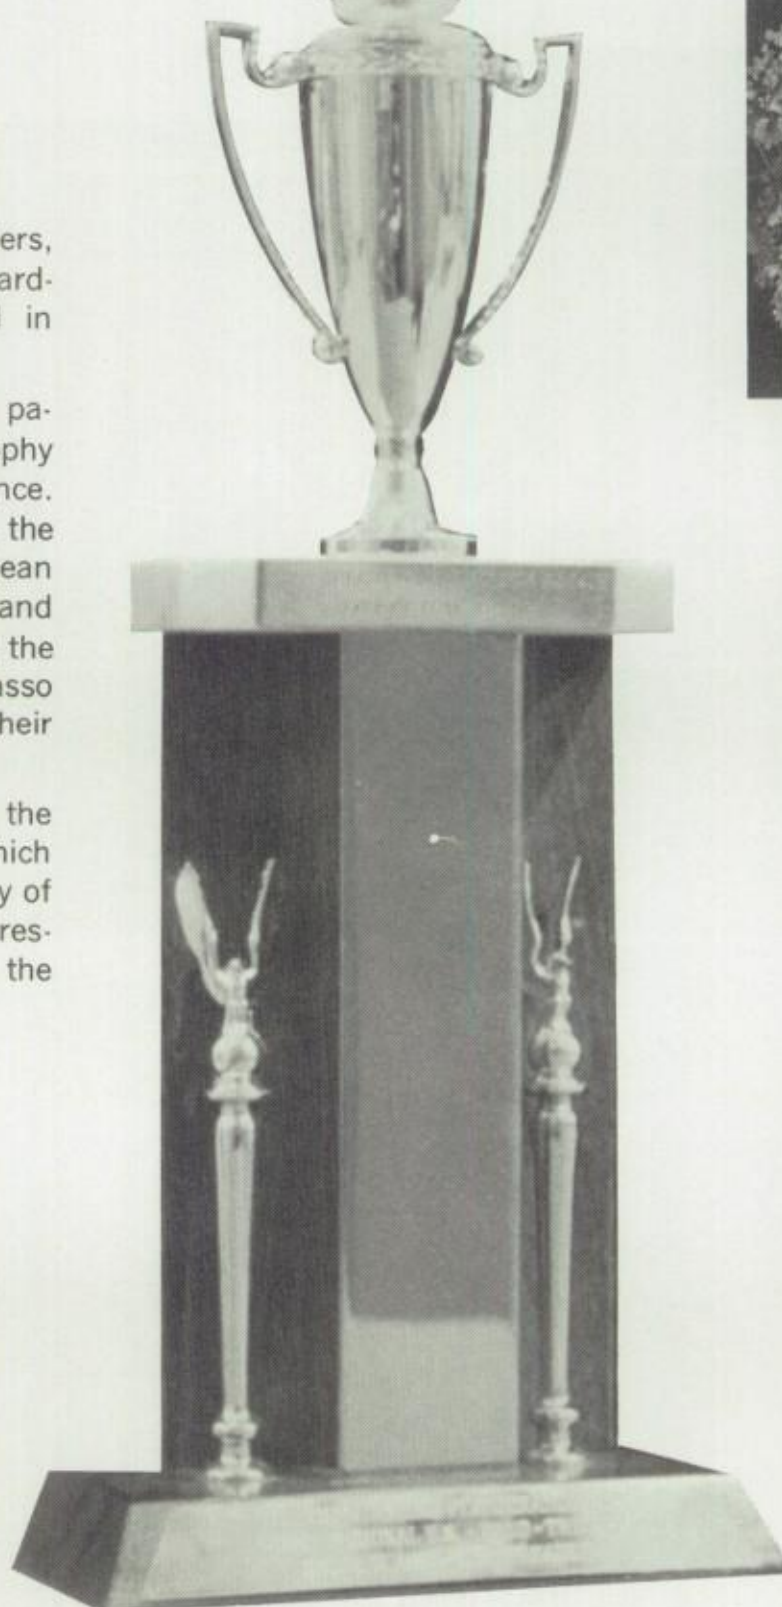

The Shore Regional band, twirlers, flag twirlers, color guard, and cheerleaders formed an award-winning marching unit which participated in several local parades.

For its contribution to the Columbus Day parade, Shore's marching unit received a trophy as recognition of its outstanding performance. During the Long Branch Mardi Gras parade, the Shore unit marched from Jackson Street to Ocean Avenue, Long Branch. Their award-winning band routine featured a pumpkin formation with the cheerleaders forming the face. Helene Grasso and Bobbie Rendish led the twirlers with their fire baton routines.

The Shore marching unit also took part in the Monmouth College Homecoming parade which ran from Ocean Avenue to the college by way of Broadway, Long Branch. The students presented an exceptional performance despite the inclement weather.

Guys, Dolls To Be Given By Players

WEST LONG BRANCH — Rehearsals are under way at Shore Regional High School for Shore Players spring musical production, "Guys and Dolls" to be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, March 31, April 1 and 2. Frank Lawyer and Ron Emmons are directing the presentation, with Mrs. Joyce Martin in charge of choreography, and Glenn Osgoodby handling business arrangements. Music will be provided by Shore Dance Band under the direction of Sal Marotta.

The theme of "Guys and Dolls" is based on a little-known Damon Runyon story "The Idylls of Sarah Brown." Music and lyrics were written by Frank Loesser. The first of two love stories entwined in the plot involves Nathan Detroit (Bruce Ardolino) a gambler, and Miss Adelaide (Roberta Rendish) a nightclub canary. The other romance concerns Sky Masterson (Ted Geiser), a free-living night hawk, and Sarah Brown (Ruth Duke), a Salvation Army lass.

Other Shore Players veterans included in the cast are: Tim Williams - Nicely Nicely Johnson; Craig Rothfuss - Rusty Charlie; Ray Yackel - Benny Southstreet; Rodney Borgman - Arvide Abernathy; Doug Berry - Angie the Ox; Charlotte Bove - Mimi; Glenn Meyer - Big Jule; and Kathy Ronon - Agatha.

Appearing for the first time in a Shore Players production will be Judy Bradley who has served as accompanist for all previous musicals. Phil Wolcott, Jim Edgar, Dale Terwilliger, and John Williams.

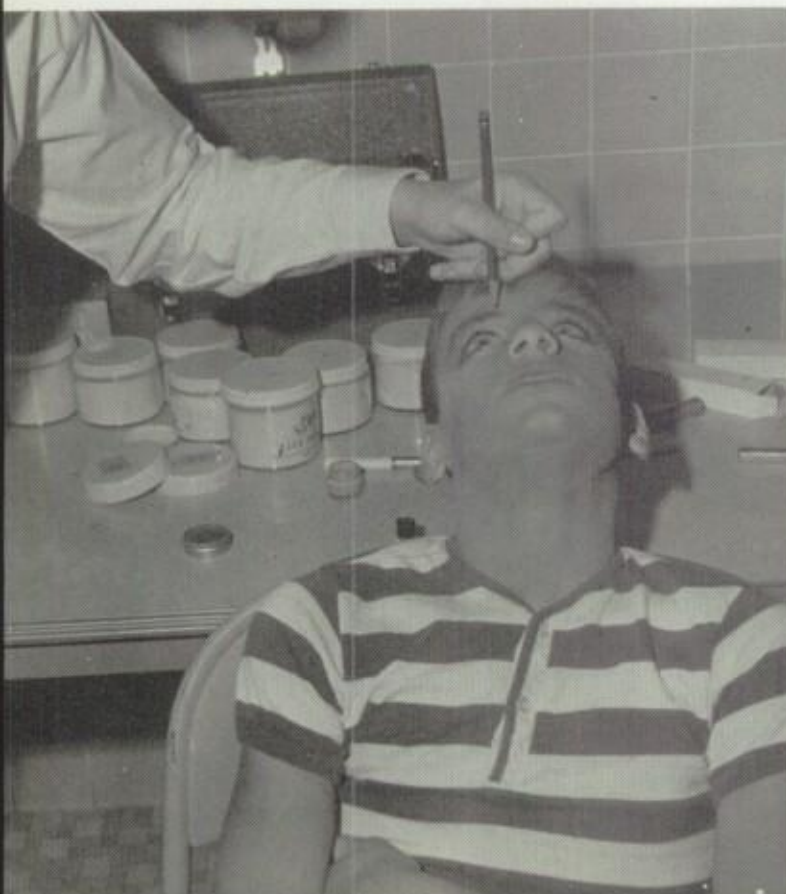

The Dancing Chorus sings under the direction of Vocal Coach, Mr. Sal Marotta.

The Dance Band, a unit organized to provide musical accompaniment for Shore Players' major production, aids a rehearsal.

THE VOYAGER '66

After patient hours of diligent work, the VOYAGER '66 is now a reality. Its pages reveal a pictorial history of school life during the current year. Behind the book's glossy prints and "witty" copy however, lies an even greater story — the story of its production. Editor-in-Chief Phyllis Rovick confers with Assistant Editors Helene Grasso and Tobe Levin as they gather ideas from other yearbooks, (Photo 1). They check the progress chart, designating the sequence of pages to be completed, (Photo 2). Deadlines are set and assignments given out, (Photo 3). Staff members quickly set to work. Shore Holds College Night

On Wednesday night, November 17, Shore Regional will host representatives from over 40 colleges and universities in "College Night." It is the first year that this annual event is being held at Shore.

Students from high schools in the southern part of the county are invited to attend. On November 18, a program similar to the one held here will be presented at Middletown High School for students from the northern part of the county.

The purpose of "College Night" is to acquaint students with the schools represented, their admissions policies, and application procedures, and to present information on majors offered, campus life, housing costs, and financial assistance.

The program will be presented in three half-hour sessions starting at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are required, and may be obtained from guidance counselors. It is also required that you inform your counselor which sessions you plan to attend.

A few of the colleges which will be represented are: Holy Cross, Monmouth, Newark State, Fairleigh Dickinson, Seton Hall, Boston University, Rider, Stevens Institute, Douglass, Drew University, Upstate, Paterson State, Syracuse University, and Glassboro State.

Student Of Month Congress Honors Pat Parker

As Senior of the month of November, Student Congress has designated Pat Parker for her outstanding service and loyalty to school.

When asked to describe Pat, Mr. Keller stated, "Pat has done more for this school so far than any two others."

This year, Pat is Feature Editor of the Beacon and is President of

Tickets Available

Tomorrow night at 8:30 p.m. the curtain will rise on the first performance of "KISS AND TELL", a three act comedy being presented by Shore Players.

"KISS AND TELL", which is being directed by English department chairman Mr. Frank Lawry, tells of troubles that arise for three families when a simple misunderstanding turns into a major family feud.

Friday and Saturday's performances will be the final product of many months of rehearsal and it is the sincere wish of all the cast and crew that the audience will enjoy watching the play, as they did producing "KISS AND TELL".

Yearbook Editors See Improvement

This year's yearbook staff includes: Phyllis Rovick, editor-in-chief; Toby Levin and Helene Grass, assistant editors; Peter Seftman, business editor; Nancy Zurak, assistant business editor; Kathy Biegke, copy editor; Carol Plesno, assistant copy editor; Judy Hansen, art editor; Bonnie Konechak, assistant art editor; and Allan Ornstein, sports editor.

The '85-'86 yearbook has been enlarged, and is now 9 inches by 12 inches. It will include color as well as United pictures, professional photography, and expanded coverage of Student Congress, Shore Players, and other student organizations.

The dedication of the yearbook has been chosen by a class vote. The selling campaign to underclassmen began on October 24th. The cost of the yearbook will be six dollars. Senior pictures for the yearbook were taken from October 25th to October 29th.

Shore Players for the second consecutive year. She is also an officer in Theta chapter of Tri Xi Y and was currently a member of Shore's weekly radio show, Four From Shore.

In Shore Players, Pat, who is considered "indispensable" by Mr. Lawry, has participated in every production thus far and is currently working in Players' latest production, "Kiss and Tell."

According to Mrs. Kirwin, "Pat is an outstanding example of selflessness." She goes on to say that Pat's most salient quality is that she will readily and happily accept any task presented to her and complete it satisfactorily.

Next year, Pat, who intends to major in English and dramatic arts, is planning on attending college somewhere in Pennsylvania.

Senior Class Plans Card Party

The Senior Card Party and Yearbook Show, sponsored by the Parents' Advisory Council, will be held Wednesday, November 10, in the school cafeteria and rooms B-6 and B-7.

Fifteen girls and twelve boys, selected by senior homeroom teachers on an arbitrary basis, will model clothes from Daniel's Fashion Center and Lou's Men and Boys' Store both of Long Branch. The models are: Darlene Amberger, Anne Axelsson, Mary Christopher, Linda Clayton, Sherri Fried, Linda Havent, Joanne Ingram, Linda LaPointe, Mary Lou Mari, Linda Slocum, Cheryl Mason, Geri Rendish, Bobbie Hendish, Stephanie Wood, and Ines da Fonseca e Silva. Also Danny Bridges, Kevin Chambers, Pete Demaree, Pete Devreotes, Phil Fink, Joseph Hanna, Bob Olivadotti, Ralph Palomba, Dale Terwilliger, Fats Woodley, Ray Yocum, and Harry Sugar.

Mrs. Adele Sugar will act as emcee, and Mary Ann Sumers and Tim Williams will play the piano to accompany the models.

This card party is not only for parents but also for any Shore Students. The cost of each ticket is $1.50.

It is hoped that $1,200 will be raised from this card party to help defray the expenses of the many activities of the Senior Class.

Toby Levin, president of the senior class, oversees as Tim Williams, Mary Lou Mari, Mary Ann Sumers, and Harry Sugar make preparations for the Senior Card Party and Fashion Show.

There will be approximately 150 play cards, and not view the fashion show.

One hundred twenty door prizes and 150 table prizes will be distributed. There will be two special prizes, one of which is a weekend for two at Mt. Airy Lodge in Pennsylvania.

"I hope it will be a financial and social success," states Mrs. Caroline Guttis, chairman of the card party.

Rep. Howard To Speak

Congressman James Howard will be the guest speaker at Shore's Veterans' Day Assembly on November 10th.

Mr. Howard, who recently completed his first year in the House of Representatives, has served twelve years at the Wall Township Public Schools as a 6th grade teacher, high school science teacher, and elementary principal. He holds a masters degree from Rutgers University.

The assembly program will be based upon appropriate topics for Veterans' Day. A student panel, consisting of the members of Shore's Political Discussion Group who have previously won several prizes in the annual Monmouth College Model United Nations, will question Mr. Howard on such subjects as the United States involvement in Viet Nam, the future of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and the admission of Communist China to the United Nations.

The members of the panel will be Robert Slocum, Paul Higgett, David Kopley, Bud Mossey, and Frank Charkowich. The moderator will be Mr. James Newman, chairman of the social studies department here at Shore.

This project is presented with hopes of bringing about a better understanding of the school. Each parent is to follow his child's daily schedule.

The classes will last 10 minutes, during which parents in study halls or at lunchtime are advised to visit the special areas of our school. The places which may be visited are the library, language laboratory, guidance office, cafeteria, and health office.

Some of the areas covered by the teachers will be the nature and aims of their course, their policies on homework, testing, use of materials, grading, student preparation, and student behavior requirements.

The two hour school night will end with refreshments being sold by the Home Economics Club to help raise funds for activities.

Homecoming Hop Has 'Go-Go' Theme

"Homecoming A-Go-Go" will be the theme of this year's discotheque Homecoming Dance which will be held in the cafeteria for the two graduate classes, the seniors, and juniors.

Day dress will be worn to this November 26th dance, which will be held from 8:00 p.m. to 12:00 p.m. Admissions will be one dollar. The "Meds", "Clubs", or the "Meds" are being considered for entertainment by the committee.

"This year's dance differs greatly from our past homecoming dances, both in theme and the fact that we expect to make money," remarked Nancy Zurak, chairman of the Homecoming Dance committee.

The other committee members are: Judy Harvey, co-chairman; Nancy Higgins, decorations; Linda Slocum and Mary Lynn Christopher, refreshments; Franka Mancini, invitations; Allan Ornstein, house arrangements; and Ray Yackel, entertainment.

Student Congress is the voice and foundation of the student body. It acts as a liaison between the faculty, administration, and students.

Included among the activities of our student organization this year were: sponsoring the American Field Service program, providing a student smoking area, selling refreshments at home football and basketball games, and donating money to clubs and organizations within the school. Other activities included operating the bookstore, attempting to build school spirit by selling booster tags, and meeting with school officials to settle student problems.

Our Student Congress thrives on the respect and dedication of each student to attain success. Like any government, Congress can only achieve what the people it governs want to achieve.

STUDENT CONGRESS

G.A.A. Sponsors Basketball Games

The Girls Athletic Association, under the direction of Mrs. Joyce Martin, has scheduled intramural basketball games with neighboring schools.

Three games have already been played. January 14 Shore's freshman girls swamped Manasquan by a score of 38-9. A combined sophomore-freshman team, however, was not as successful for they were beaten 21-14 by Monmouth Regional on January 6. Friday, January 21, another combined team of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors illustrated their strength by beating Long Branch 30-25.

Future games have been scheduled.

On February 19 the G.A.A. will hold a gymnastic clinic from 9:30 to 4:00. All Monmouth County public high school girls have been invited to participate.

The guest of honor will be Mr. Bob Freeman, a graduate of Springfield College, who is presently director of physical activities at the Morristown Y.M.C.A.

The purpose of this clinic is to further the basic knowledge of gymnastic understanding. Shore Regional will have available two balance beams, a horse, a buck, uneven parallel bars, a horizontal bar, rings and ropes. Part of the day will be spent watching films of gymnastics in Germany, from Mr. Freeman's recent tour.

"The 1965 Football Spirit has been a quiet reserve not uncommon with a new team. The probable casue is that many boys were learning their positions for the first time, and their concentration was primarily along those lines. As coaches, we stressed the idea that our boys should believe in themselves and reach for their own goals of attainment, rather than trying to live up to past performances."

"We tried to gain two years' experience in one by playing many boys both on JV and Varsity. We feel that although we did not have a winning season, we developed more football players with which to begin anew next year."

Head Coach Jake Jeffrey

SOCCER: A WORLD-RENOWNED SPORT

The coaching staff endeavored to stress the importance of offensive and defensive tactics. New techniques were introduced which aided each individual in ameliorating his performance on the field. Although the team was physically small, the mental attitude was immeasurable. It was this attitude plus team work that placed us third in the Northern Division. Although we are losing several fine senior players, we feel confident that the returning underclassmen will attain the same success.

SPARKLERS OF ENTHUSIASM . . .

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS '65-'66: FIRST ROW — Captains P. Barbour and T. Levin. 2nd ROW — K. Reilly, N. Welch, B. Nicholls, C. Mason, D. Golden, S. Wood, C. Rubino. Missing: K. Drombrowski.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders: FIRST ROW — M. Calabrese, Captains W. Woolley and D. Palumbo, C. Pingitore. 2nd ROW: C. Natale, M. Palmasani, B. Tilley, L. Praet, K. King. Missing: J. Broussell.

Each Friday night of football season Pat, Tobe, and the squad invaded the boys' locker room to post decorations assuring the team SRHS was behind them. Here Kathy Reilly and Tobe Levin "hang" the theme of the decorations for the Manasquan game.

Sept. 24 saw the Cheerleading Season kicked off with a pep rally and spaghetti dinner given by the cheerleaders for the football team of 1965. Pat Barbour welcomes the guests and wishes the Devils luck on the gridiron.

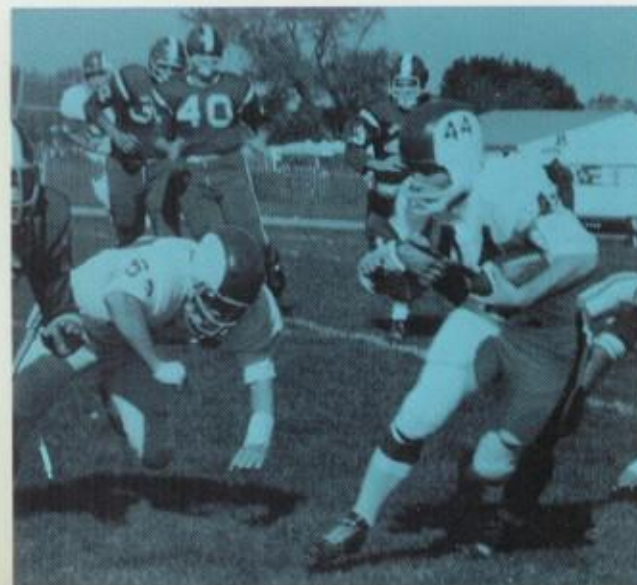

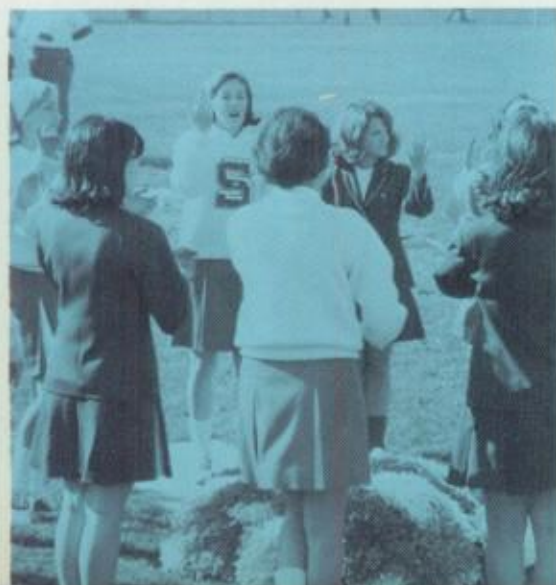

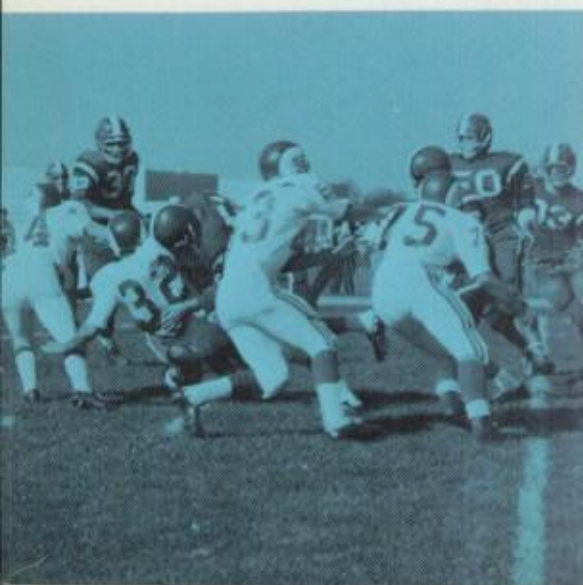

"The Team was in a Huddle" and this huddle includes the Senior Regulars on the Varsity Cheerleading squad, Cheryl Mason, Kathy Reilly, Kathy Dombrowski, Stephanie Wood, and Nancy Welch. The cheerleaders' advisor is Mrs. Vivian Seaman.

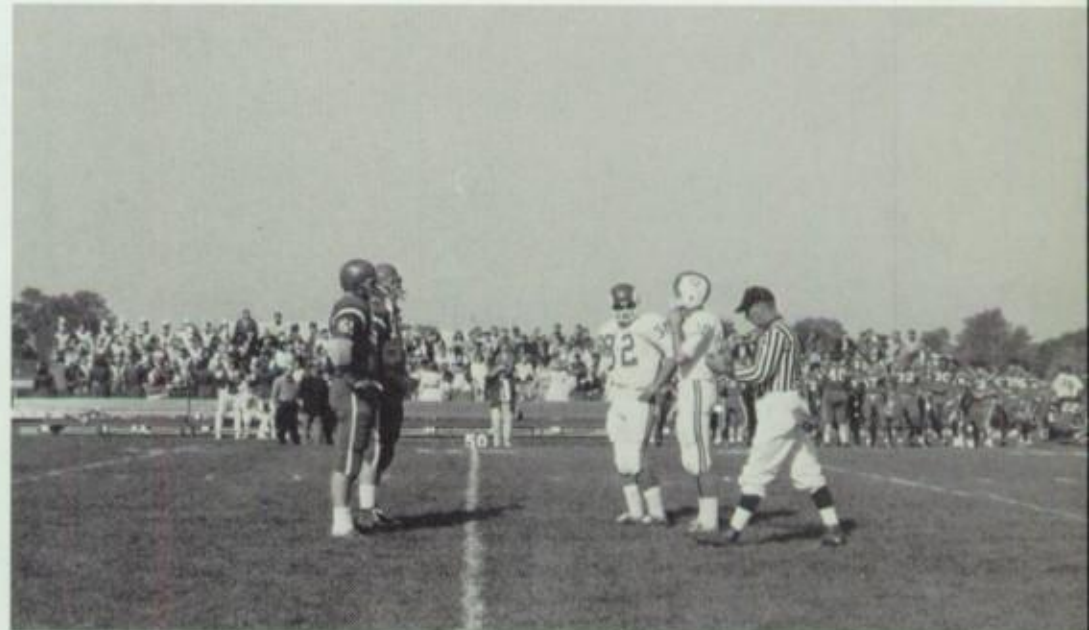

Varsity Captains Tobe Levin and Pat Barbour "strike a careless pose" while awaiting the bus to the Monmouth Tilt. Assisting is Blue Devil Jackie Cramer.

Reisner racks up two more for Shore . . .

It's red for Defense . . .

"As we entered the current Varsity basketball season, the coaching staff felt optimistic, although we knew success depended upon how soon our novice players matured on defense. Because only four letter winners returned from last year's fine team, we knew we had a big task ahead of us. The regular season ended with a record of 10-13. We played well at times and poorly at times. We feel that this could have been attributed to the lack of experience of our players.

Two of the ball games most of us will long remember were the opening victory against Matawan with a score of 64-52 and the double-overtime victory of 85-83 against Wall.

We did qualify for a spot in the state tournament for the second consecutive year, and with all but two regulars returning next year, we look for better things ahead. Our anticipation of next season is tempered with the knowledge that success does not come easily and must be earned at a cost that is very high."

Wrestling is one of the fastest growing and most exciting high school and college sports. It is a contact sport which tests the strength, endurance, and mental alertness of an individual. Each match has three periods, each being two minutes long. Contestants are matched according to weights, allowing boys of similar size to compete in their own weight class. Scoring is done by awarding points to the wrestler who forces his opponent down to the mat and gains control over him. The individual character of wrestling makes victory or defeat a personal responsibility.

From the Desk of Our Superintendent

As a boy attending a small school in northern New Jersey, I was required to participate in chapel services each morning. Singing was an important part of these morning exercises. One song in particular I remember to this day, and I believe that its words have become a motto for me — a standard, a way of life:

For Life is a mirror of king and slave,
It's just what we are and do.
So give to the world the best you have
And the best will come back to you.

Unfortunately, there is a growing belief today that the world owes everyone a living and that ambition is a quality reserved only for the eccentric. This belief implies that because one exists, he is entitled to all the privileges and luxuries which civilization, through hard work and long suffering, has reaped for itself over the ages.

If this philosophy persists, then what a grab-bag of fortune is waiting for the young man or woman who enters the work-a-day world with specific objectives in mind and a fist full of ambition to accompany it!

It is my prayer that you are one of these young people.

Albert M. Hoppert

From the Desk of Our Principal

You are the first graduating class to spend four years in Shore Regional High School. This is a very distinct honor — one which you should be proud of and cherish the rest of your life.

The dramatist Ben Jonson once wrote about William Shakespeare —

"Thou art a monument without a tomb,
And art alive still while thy book doth live,
And when we have wits to read and praise to give."

Those words are applicable to you, the Class of 1966.

You have left behind an intangible monument of spirit, high ideals and responsibility for future Shore Regional graduates to attain. Paraphrasing the late President John F. Kennedy, you, as a class, have asked —

"What can we do for our school," not,
"What can our school do for us."

To each of you graduates, I extend my best wishes for your success and happiness in the future.

The members of the Junior Class joined the ranks of upperclassmen this year. During their first class meeting, many fund raising activities were suggested. The most profitable project undertaken was the publication of football programs. The traditional Junior Faculty Game was staged to the theme of "Monsters We Have Known and Loved" Unfortunately, the Junior team suffered a defeat in spite of all their enthusiasm. The Junior Prom ended the year of class sponsored activities. Decorations expressing "A Touch of Paris" camouflaged the walls of the gym on that evening. These events and other exciting experiences made the Junior year a memorable one for the Class of '67.

"Sophomore year" and "fund raising" are synonymous at SRHS. With an over-all stress on dues collections, the Executive Board of the Class of 68 has succeeded in establishing a sound treasury. Profits from the sale of Valentine's Dance tickets as well as proceeds from the annual spring Sophomore Carnival have augmented the class bank account. The Valentine's Dance and Sophomore Carnival proved to be very successful social events as well as lucrative business enterprises!

FRESHMEN . . .

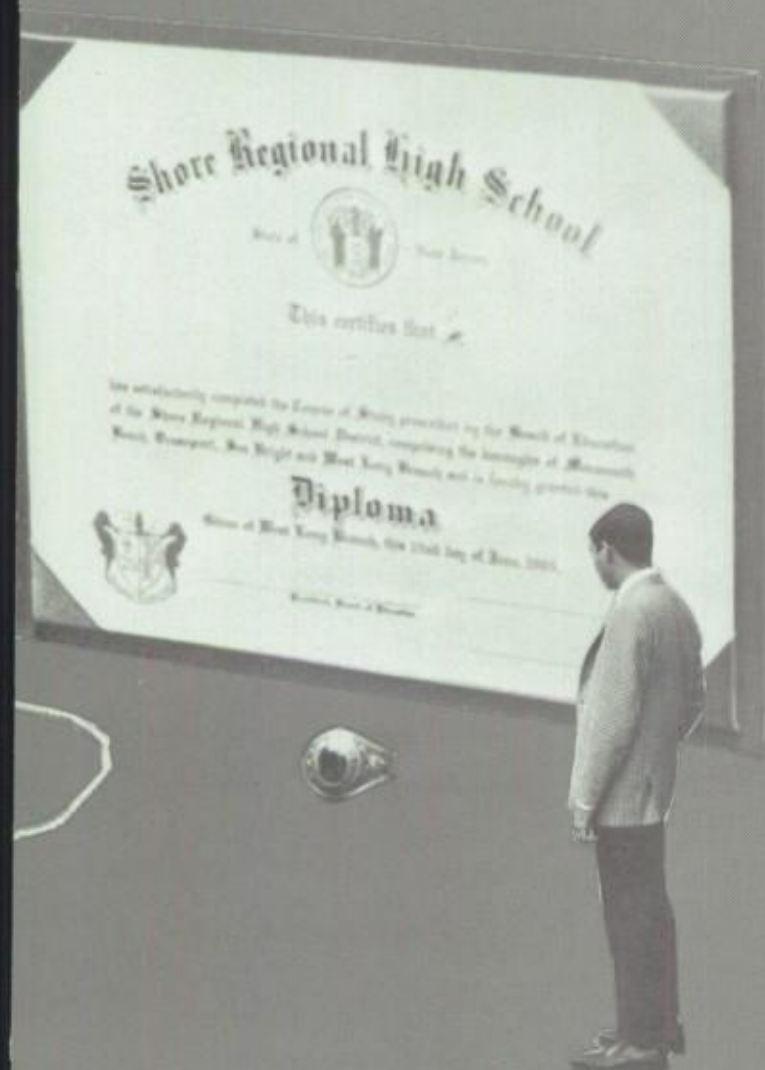

The Freshman Class, after being oriented to high school procedure, quickly adjusted to school routine. Under the supervision of Mrs. Ceil Langa, an executive board comprised of homeroom representatives and class officers was elected. The board then began to run the internal affairs of the class.

Realizing that there was much to be accomplished, the Frosh soon found themselves caught up in a whirlwind of activities. Their first fund raising activity was a sock hop held after the Monmouth Regional basketball game. A spring dance sponsored by the class climaxed the calendar of Freshman events.

SENIORS . . .

With continued success as their motto, the Senior Class enjoyed a financially secure as well as active year. Numerous students participated in such class sponsored activities as the Powder Puff Football game, the Homecoming Dance, and Student Day. The Executive Board organized the sale of senior keys and graduation announcements. A substantial sum was donated to the American Field Service Program as a part of the class gift.

The Senior Prom climaxed the social calendar. Held at the Homestead Country Club on June 3, 1966, it personified the theme "Try to Remember." Finally Senior Chapel and graduation brought the academic year to a close.

FROM THE STAFF OF THE

VOYAGER

June, 1966

Dear Seniors,

On September 6, 1962, approximately 200 students entered the doors of Shore Regional High School to become members of its first Freshman Class. Four years have passed since then, four years which have been as distinctive to the school as they have been to the individual students. It is in this reflective spirit that the Voyager '66 staff recalls these recent years, so characteristic of both our class and school.

The freshmen enthusiastically formed their class organization as the sounds of workmen's drills echoed from the auditorium and gym. Campaign posters filled the halls as nine daring individuals presented their electoral speeches to a sea of yet strange faces. The shocked and winning candidates, President Larry Memmola, Vice President Erick Hjembo, Secretary Phyllis Rovick, and Treasurer Cynthia Craig took their respective offices and quickly set to work. Under the patient guidance of the class advisor Mr. Capoferri, their first fund raiser was a "tremendous" success. The recent movie, "The Delicate Delinquent" starring Jerry Lewis, entertained a large crowd at its Friday night showing.

A chocolate fudge, chewing gum, and lollipop filled campaign ushered in the May election of Sophomore Class officers. President Erick Hjembo, Vice President Mary Ann Smorra, Secretary Tobe Levin, and Treasurer Rocco Bongarzone led the triumphant year of successful dues collections and fund raising projects. Profits from candy, confetti, and noisemaker sales swelled the treasury as the Sadie Hawkins Dance highlighted the calendar of social events. On February 29, 1964, Shore students became temporary residents of Dogpatch, U.S.A., where a gentleman's choice was the exception to the rule. Little blue enamel devils decorated the lockers of football and basketball team members as the spirited Sophomores supported their athletes. The class-sponsored movie "Flower Drum Song" starring Nancy Kwan climaxed a busy year for the Class of '66.

Newly elected Junior Class officers, President Tobe Levin, Vice-President Mary Ann Smorra, Secretary Phyllis Rovick, and Treasurer Harry Sugar, assumed their duties at an Executive Board Party. Held at the end of Sophomore year, it was attended by class members as well as their homeroom representatives. The largest fund raiser, the publication of football programs for sale at home games, added $1400 to the class treasury. An overwhelming number of students participated in the Junior Faculty Game, "Believe It or Not," ushered in by Rupert, a giant walking snowman.

Many class members spent an enchanting evening dancing through a lollipop and rose garden, the scene of our Junior Prom. The evening of May 29, 1965, brought to a climax three years of remarkable class participation, cooperation, and achievement. Confidently the Class of '66 sailed into the last lap of its voyage through high school, senior year. The Voyager staff has attempted to capture the highlights of this important and meaningful year throughout the pages of this book.

Sincerely,

Tobe Levin

Senior Class President

Flashback....

OUR SPECIAL SENIOR . . .

When I first saw Shore Regional, I thought to myself, "What a nice building." Now I am proud to say this building is my school.

I shall never forget my first pep-rally, my first football game, or my first club meeting.

Each person who has contributed and made Shore what it is today holds a special place in my memories.

Finally, I want each one to keep in mind the adage of A.F.S.:

Walk together, talk together,

IN MEMORIAM . . .

Lance Corporal
ROBERT O. BALMER

From Shore you sailed on angry seas,
You met the tempest full face to wind.
You reached the harbor much too soon.
But now the sea is calm; the sun breaks through,
A thousand waves reflect your light.
A thousand friendships feel the warmth.

THANK YOU

We, the VOYAGER '66 Editors, express our sincere appreciation to those people who have selflessly contributed their time and effort toward making our book a reality:

Mr. Charles Burton, yearbook adviser, for his many hours of patient service and guidance.

Mr. Lindley Robinson for his expert guidance to the Senior Class in his position as class advisor.

Happy Barkis and Ross Hendrickson for their countless hours of faithful service to this staff.

John Rose for his oil painting used as the end-flaps of this book.
